

Medical School:

Maulana Azad Medical College, University of Delhi

Residency:

Fairview Hospital, Cleveland Clinic Health System, Cleveland, OH
Internal Medicine Residency

Fellowships:

Roswell Park Center Institute, Hematology Oncology Fellowship
University of Toronto, Department of Pathobiology &
Laboratory Medicine

Board Certifications:

American Board Internal Medicine – Medical Oncology
American Board of Internal Medicine – Internal Medicine
Board Certified in Neuro-Oncology - (United Council for Neurologic Subspecialties)

Manmeet Ahluwalia, MD, MBA, FASCO, is a distinguished leader in oncology, renowned for his expertise in brain tumors and brain metastases. He serves as Chief of Medical Oncology, Chief Scientific Officer, and Deputy Director at Miami Cancer Institute, where he holds the Fernandez Family Foundation Endowed Chair in Cancer Research. Dr. Ahluwalia is a professor of Translational Medicine at Florida International University's Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine and has published over 275 peer-reviewed articles. A leader in oncology, he has spearheaded clinical research, and secured significant NIH grants, including two RO1 grants as Co-Principal Investigator, and serves as the clinical trial leader on PO1 grants with over 10 million in funding. Dr. Ahluwalia has been the recipient of multiple awards including Crain's 40 under 40, Northeast Ohio, American Society of Clinical Oncology Leadership Development Program Award, Leading in Healthcare, Cleveland Clinic, Career Development Award of National Cancer Institute, Most Distinguished Physician Award, American Association of Physicians of Indian Origin, Fellow of the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO) and the inaugural Oncology Icon Award, Targeted Oncology, American Society of Clinical Investigation (ASCI) underscoring his significant contributions to the field.