

Tim R. Williams, M.D. FACRO FASTRO

MEDICAL DIRECTOR

SOUTH FLORIDA PROTON THERAPY INSTITUTE.

DELRAY BEACH, FLORIDA

Tim R. Williams, M.D., is the Medical Director of SFPTI and has practiced as a board-certified radiation oncologist in South Florida since 1989. Before moving to Florida area, he was Assistant Professor of Radiation Oncology at The Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University.

In addition to operating a full-time clinical practice, Dr. Williams is Past President of the American Society for Radiation Oncology, and 2022 recipient of the Society's Gold Medal; Past Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists; and Past President of the Florida Radiological Society, and a recipient of the Society's Gold Medal.

Dr. Williams is also a Past Member of the Council Steering Committee for the American College of Radiology and serves as Medical Director for the training program in radiation therapy technology at Broward College.

He is the founding board member of the International Cancer Expert Corps (www.ICEC.org); member of HealthCare Policy Committee and International Education Subcommittee and is liaison to the Association of Residents in Radiation Oncology as well as Chair of the Corporate Relations Committee at ASTRO. He is also the Clinical Affiliate Associate Professor in the Charles E. Schmidt College of Medicine at Florida Atlantic University. He is past member of the Advisory Board for Radiation Protection for the State of Florida Department of Health, past member of the Board of Trustees for the Radiation Oncology Institute.

Dr. Williams is a cum laude graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology (1978), received his M.D. degree from the Medical College of Georgia (1983), and took his residency at Shand's Hospital at the University of Florida (1987).